LIMOUSINE OVERTURNED.

When Climbing Hill-Three of the Occupants Hurt.

St. Johnsbury, July 13.-Mr. and same records.-Boston Transcript. Mrs. H. E. Bennett of Glencoe, Ill., a uburb of Chicago, and her sister, Mrs forrest H. Montgomery, are at the Brightlook hospital as a result of injuries received late Sunday afternoon rhon their limousine, a Franklin everturned at the top of the Dole hill in Danville. The other occupant of he car, Beatrice, 12-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bennett, escaped without a scratch.

The party were touring through the state and stopped in St. Johnsbury bout 3 o'clock in the afternoon. After they left everything went all right with the car until they almost reached the top of the hill. Here Mr. Bennett sttempted to shift from high into low and the differential gears failed to match. The car immediately started lown hill and landed in the ditch and sverturned. The car stopped just be nw the sign board and had it gone much further it would have gone with all its passengers over the steepest mbankment on the road.

Being a closed car the occupants were penned in and neighbors and hose in passing cars gave first aid unil Dr. M. J. Paulsen arrived. He gave professional attention brought the entire party to Brightlook iospital. An examination disclosed hat Mr. Bennett's left hand was badly njured and some of the bones broken Mrs. Bennett received a bad scalp wound, probably from the glass in the ar, and Mrs. Montgomery was badly haken up, but as yet no internal inturies have developed. All were relong comfortably, having escaped alnost miraculously from a serious ac

Just One Application and the Hairs Vanish

(Modes of To-day)

A harmless, yet very effective, treatment is here given for the quick removal of hairy growths: Mix enough powdered delatone and water to cover the undesirable hairs, apply paste and after 2 or 3 minutes remove, wash the skin and the hairs have vanished. One application usually is sufficient, but to be certain of results, buy the delatone in an original package. Mix fresh as wanted.-Adv.
